Intimations.

THIS HAIR WASH has been prepared by us for the last 20 years. Its sale is steadily increasing in India, the Straits and Japan. It possesses all the qualities of a Hafr Oil or Pomade without their stickiness. It induces a healthy action of the scalp and nourishes the Hair. Dandruff never appears whilst it is in use. It contains none but the best ingredients, and the greatest care is taken in the compounding. When the Hair falls off after fever or any other sickness, this Wash will surely prove of the greatest value.

AOU-TI-KEE HAIR: WASH.

From its great nourishing power on the follicles it may in time cause Hair to return to its natural color; it, however, does not contain a particle of any dyeing ingredient. Using it constantly will most certainly prevent the Hair falling. It is cleanly in use, the smallest quantity sufficing. It has no sediment, and therefore requires no shaking.

THE O. S. S. Coy.'s steamer Lucries lef Liverpool for this port and Shanghai on the 24th Inst. The Priam, from London left Singapore on the afternoon of the 24t h for this port and Japan; and the Jason from Liverpool, left Singapore for this and Shanghai on the forenoon of the 25th inst.

THE nominations for the Hongkong Derby, which closed the other day, are more nu merous than usual, mainly on account o the fact that there are this year fifteen subscription griffins. No less than nineteen have entered, as against about a dozen last year ; and there is therefore every likelikood of an exciting contest for this much-prized honour.

PASSENGERS booked at Home for Hongkong :- From Southampton, Nov. 17 (via Bombay and Calentia), Mr J. Jeffery, Miss Jeffery. From Southampton, Nov. 24, Mr R. W. Rutter, Major J. L. Longden. From Goods per Anadyr undelivered after Southampton, Dec. 8, Miss E. Coates, Sir Brooke Robertson. From Venice, Dec. 17, Mr G. Phillips. From Marnellies, Nov. 28, Mr G. Waghorn, Mr J. D. Humphreys, Mr H. G. James.

THE surprising Telegram concerning the resignation by Lord Ripon of the Viceroyalty of India has been followed, it will be seen, by a prompt contradiction. It was difficult to account for such a step upon Avoca leaves for Bombay on or about this any other ground than that of ill-health, His Excellency having caught fever on his journey through the country. That the news is untrue, however, will be generally regarded with satisfaction.

> NEWS has been received in town by telegram that the S. S. Bombay, the property of Kwok Acheong's firm, has been totally destroyed by fire, being burned to the water's edge, at Woosung, with a cargo of cotton. No further particulars are to hand by wire, but it is known here that the steamer and cargo are not covered anything like fully by insurance. It is worthy of note that of late cotton cargoes have been the cause of considerable trouble to more than one steamer-owning company.

We have received by the last mail, and will notice later on, "A Letter to Professor F. Max Müller, chiefly on the translation into English of the Chinese terms Ti and Shang Ti, in reply to a letter to him by 'Inquirer' in the Chinese Recorder and Missionary Journal for May-June, 1880. By James Legge, Professor of the Chinese Language and Literature in the University of Oxford. London : Tribner & Co., 78 and 79 Ludgate нш. 1680."

WE are glad to be able to state that H.E. Admiral Coote has promptly taken up the matter of the British schooner Lilla, the wrecked vessel that was plundered at the Pellew Islands by the ill-conditioned inhabitants of one of that group. The British Admiral has, we understand, decided to send a vessel to the scene of the outrage, so soon as the necessary documents are sent in verifying the facts stated by Captains O'Keele and Keats which we published on the 23nd; and there is therefore every likelihood of these gentlemen obtaining redress, so far at least as the discovery of the stolen property is concerned. It is to be hoped that the Admiral will not forget the well-disposed chief who assisted the ship wrecked fellows after they were robbed of everything, as judicious encouragement frequently goes as far with friendly natives as deserved severity does with the evil-bration in the East in these days may be mentioned the increasing number of Christmas greetings now forwarded by telegraph hence to the Old Country. We are afraid to define the feelings of our grand-fathers if such a message as a "Merry Christmas to you all," dated Hongkong, say 8 a.m. of Dec. 25th, had been delivered at about that very hour on the festive day These things, however, formerly regarded as a black art, are now fast becoming common facts; and if telegraphic companies would lay themselves out for encouraging this humanising use of the wires - making such a thing possible for two or three dolthe M. the members of the Battery of the B. A. stationed here. Much time and care must have been expended by those to whom the Corps are indebted for the present tasteful and appropriate dressing of the four large rooms in the quarters which were prepared for the Christmas entertainment of the members of the Battery, their wives and friends. It would be invidious to draw any comparisons between the differences in style or particulars which made each room differ from the others in some particular point, the whole effect being harmonious, light and cheerful in the highest degree. In one apartment were to be seen the flags of all pations in painting on the walls in another the arms and esoutcheons of various Governments in paints with a bordering of evergreens. Festoons of coloured paper chains were draped from the ceiling throughout the whole suite of rooms, and over the mantelpiece of one, a paste-board model appeared of the Gunner, the winning boat in several of the recent Regat's competitions, with its Regimental crew and colours. Evergreens were gracefully disposed round the walls, and a plentiful display of Chinese lanterns, with plenty of military is colours," surrounding each door-way, sufficed to fill up all vacant spaces and give the rooms a warm and comfortable appearance. After the "Christmas," dinner one room was set saide for danning and another for refreshments. A very pleasant evening was spent by all present, the whole conduct of the preparations and arrangements for the enjoyment of the day giving the greatest satisfaction to all concerned.

able for its lack of interesting matter. That document which the Governor promised, in open Council, to give to the world, has never yet appeared. If His Excellency had been afraid that its publication would, have been too much for the modesty of the Surveyor. General while he was in the Colony, an opright thing, seeing that Mr Price left the Colonial Surgeon is, of course, so rich and racy that it is not suitable for the grave pages of the official organ. This conviction is now being forced upon us by its prolonged non-appearance; but at a holiday and could not without such authority accept somewhat festive reason like the present, its appearance, even granting that it may be of a lively character, would not be out of place.-Speaking of holidays, Governor Hennessy's action in regard to them is one of those little things that are wholly incornprehensible. For twenty years, or more, Government officials have been allowed the day before as well as the day after Christmas and the New Year: this year the James B. Coughtrie, Esq., Hon. Sec. day before has been knocked off. For about the same period, the public, the heads of departments and clerks have been notified in an official and conclusive manner that the holidays were to be observed. This year not a word has been published either one way or other about the matter. . We would have been inclined to have called the Acting Colonial Secretary to task for this omission, but for the fact that the stoppage of the holiday previous to Christmas and New Years' Day shows that the matter must have been before the Governor. The question is not a vital one, probably, it being merely one of public convenience and of departmental smoothness. But it tends to show that a certain parade in the official Guzette some time since about holidays was simply a show of words without meaninga thing sadly common in these time-serving

MR Cyrus W. Field and Mrs Field were passengers from Shanghai by the Kashgar which arrived yesterday. No introduction is needed as between Mr Field and the community here. We need only state that the illustrious traveller is accompanied by his wife, his eldest son and his daughtertrip round the world, there is little doubt that he has in contemplation a cable across the Pacific to connect America with Japan and China. Mr Field is a native of Stockbridge, Massachusetts, but we have already given a record of his life and a brief statement of what his views and objects are with regard to the spread of telegraphy in this quarter of the globe. A Shanghai paper, writing on the day when Mr Field arrived at that port, said :-

Mr Field told us to-day, that the advantage of his work had never appeared so palpably before him as when on bis arrival he received a telegram, dated only a few hours previous, from New York, announcfug "all well." On being interrogated, San Francisco, Mr Field informed us that it was simply a matter of money, and that if that were forthcoming, the cable would nese women and a child. be also, as no less than three routes, with The first enquiry was with regard to the accurate soundings, had already been marked. Extract from the Stockholm Dugblad. November 10th, 1880 :- Testimonial to Captain Palander .- In the Gottenburg Post we read .- "We have already mentioned that Baron Nordenskield has received from Hongkong a large silver vase, as a testimonial and as a remembrance of the first English port at which he called after having accomplished the North East passage. Now we read in The Queen that Captain Palander has also received a similar testimonial in the form of a silver cup (144 Mexican dollars worth in weight; Baron Nordenskiold's weighed 438), inlaid with gold. On the top of the cup a Chinese junk is represented : the base consists of the ordinary Chinese dragons which are a ways to be found on Chinese works of art. It appears that Captain Palander's eup is much more handsome than Baron Nordenskiold's because the great dimensions of the latter prevented the artist from exhibiting his taste in the work.

On the silver plate there was the following inscriptio ... "To Lieut. Adolp Louis Palander, of the Swedish Navy, commander of the Vega during her voyage through the in-law, and though estensibly on a pleasure North East passage, this cup has been presented as a token of their appreciation of his great talent and skill, by the inhabitants of Hongkong." Both the vase and the cup were sent by the mail to London, to be from there sent to the English Ambas ador in Stockholm, who should present them, on behalf of the subscribers. The vase and the cup are made by different goldsmiths (Sun Shing and Chun Wo). appears that the device is the same as is used all over Europe, but the details are entirely Chinese.

It appears that upon the sad eventful news reaching the late Doctor's home in the United States, a special Mem rial Service was convened at the "Gospel 'tent," when Dr. Allen amongst - numerous - other speakers gave an able and eulogistic address upon the life and character of the deceased gentleman, quoting from the Foochow Herald of the 19th August last, in confirmation of the benefits the late Doctor had conferred upon the suffering humanity of China, and expatiating upon the useful and unselfish manner in which he labored carly lo life in their own midst.

We understand that Mr A. F. Angue, so long connected with the firm of Meeses Jardine, Ma heson & Co., at this port, takes his final departure, by the S. S. Kwang Tung on Sunday morning next. Rumors have, for some time past, been prevalent of the seizure of two launches running under the agency of Mesars George Harman & Co., whilst plying between here and Shui Kow, and although previously unauthenticated, Friday last realized the event, when after receiving numerous warnings from the Uhinese Authorities. who evidently suspected that matters were not altogether couleur de vose, both launches were confinested. The Chinese Authorities. it appears, before taking such decisive measures solicited the Opinion of Mr Hayllar, Q.o., who supported their views by referring to orticles XLVI and XLVII of the Tientain Treaty of 1858. We are given to understand that H.B.M.'s Consul applied for the restitution of the seized property. and upon such application being refused, the Consul desired to have the matter referred to the Chief Justice of H. B.M. Supreme Court of Shanghai, for the latter's decision thereon. The Chinese Authorities, however, have declined the Consul's proposition, setting forth that the matter of confiscation for breach of treaty rights, being of a purely political, and not a legal question, the affair should be referred to the High Authorities at Peking. Such being the case, we presume a cause célèbre will ensue, when, if the question is purery as to the violation of limits of Fooshow as an open port of commerce, the question can be easily settled, whereas, if another offence can be proved, as hinted, of course the seizure, would, in that case, be legally

His Excellency Chan Phys Bhanuwongse Maha Kose Dhiboti ti Praklang, the late Siamese Envoy, being greatly struck with the grandeur of the Albert Memorial. intrusted Mr Benson, the silversmith, with an order for a large copy in silver, to be the King of Siam as a memento of their most perfect architectural piece of plate ever made. It is 3 ft. 6 iu. bigh. and stands on a pedestal of like height, being in all 7 (t. The lines followed are exactly those of the architect, the late Sir Gilbert Scott, with the detail of the decorations modified where necessary to the Buddhist religion. The figure of the Prince Consort is replaced by a spirited model of the King in a standing position. The Embassy, as the donors, are produced in tax-belief below, and make a picturesque group in the front panel, the other sides having his Majesty's Body Guard. The Regal Crown marbles, and the white elephants stand at Europe, Asia, Africa, and America. It is a pity, however, that the mudels for the elephants were not better chosen, as those represented are like African ones, and not Siamese. It will be a handsone memorial of the visit of his Excellency and staff to this country. It is to be despatched as soon as the inscription-in Siamete-has been sugraved on it. In a recent issue we stated that affairs in the Russ-Chinese Question were more pacific, and we now have later advices from St. Petersburg, which state that negotiations were taking a more definite and perceful form. THE CHINA REVIEW.

a VISITORS COLUMN, which we trust will prove successful, and be found use-HE widely-expressed regret at the discontinuance of Notes & Queries on China and Japan, has induced the publishen of this journal to issue a publication similar in object and style, but slightly modified in certain details. THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and Queries on the Far East, is issued at intervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octavo pages, occasionally illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published demand, and the circulation justify, such The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage

Notes and Replies are classified toge ther as "'Notes" (head references being given, when furnished, to previous Notes or Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish nev or enpublished details concerning the matter in band. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two emays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what scholan are ascertaining about China. The lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the Review. Address China Review, Hongkong,-Northern Ohristian Advocate (U.S.) Trubner's Oriental Record contains the tollowing notice of the China Review :- " This is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as in China. The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accomulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publigity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Uhinose Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the Rev. E. J. Eitel, to which the place of honour is deservedly given, an excellent summary is presented of the chronological problems and arguments involved in connexion with this important work. Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese poet-statesman of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that
